OVERVIEW OF THE ELECTION OF THE KPFT STATION BOARD

The KPFT Local Election Supervisor will hold an election to seat 12 delegates to 3-year terms of the Local Station Board. There will be separate but parallel elections for both Listener and Staff Delegates to the Local Station Board.

One function of the board is to see that the needs of the station and the community are being met, from programming to budgets. A second function is to report on and represent the station to the Pacifica National Governing Board through appointed representatives.

With these duties in mind, board Delegates are elected for a number of reasons:

- To set a model of accountability for the National Board;
- To strengthen the legitimacy of the Local Station Board;
- To bring diverse, grassroots voices from the community into the dialogue between the community and the station.

There are two ways to qualify to vote as a "Listener-Sponsor Member":

- SUBSCRIBER: Donate $25+ to KPFT between Oct 2, 2017 and Oct 1, 2018.
- VOLUNTEER: Complete 3+ verifiable volunteer hours at KPFT during the same period.

Nominations will be accepted through October 24, 2018. Candidates must be qualified voters and submit Nominating Petitions with 15 signatures of qualified voters in support of the candidate. From now until the close of the nomination period, the Election Supervisor and Election Committee will hold regional nomination events where candidates and voters can meet and sign petitions.

To facilitate the gathering of petition signatures, you may submit a statement of up to 500 words immediately, which will be posted on the KPFT election web site for listeners to browse, contact you with questions, or offer to sign your petition. This statement can later become your candidate statement if you run, or you may submit a revised statement.

We'll post candidate data online and after the nomination process is complete, host on-air candidate forums. Qualified Voters will receive their ballots in the mail in November 2018. Completed ballots are due to be received no later than December 20, 2018.

There are 9 listener seats and 3 staff seats being chosen during this election. The entire Local Station Board consists of 18 listener delegates as well as 6 staff delegates who are elected by staff.

Pacifica's mission and principles require that we strive to achieve diversity on the Station Board, and voters are urged to consider that in casting their votes.

JOB DESCRIPTION OF A LOCAL STATION BOARD MEMBER

The KPFT Station Board will be elected by the subscribers and staff of the station. The Local Station Board will have the following powers and responsibilities which are established by the bylaws of the Pacifica Foundation.

- The Local Station Board appoints the directors of the Pacifica Foundation which manages the radio stations in New York, NY, Washington, DC, Houston, TX, Los Angeles, CA, and Berkeley, CA. The Local Station Board can recall these Foundation directors by a simple majority of the Local Station Board.
- The Local Station Board also appoints from its own member representatives to serve on committees of the National Foundation responsible for finances, programming, governance, and other matters.
- The Local Station Board will vote to send 4 of its members to act as Delegates on the National Board

In addition, the Local Station Board has the following duties and responsibilities:

- Acting as liaisons for the local community to the Station Management (Board and Staff) and the Pacifica Foundation.
- Actively reaching out to under-represented communities to help the station serve a diversity of all races, creeds, colors and nations, classes, genders and sexual orientations, abilities, and ages. The Local Station Board is also directed to help build collaborative relations with organizations working for similar purposes.
- Assisting the station in fundraising activities.
- Conducting at least 2 Town Hall style meetings each year which are devoted to hearing listeners' views, needs, and concerns. Community needs assessments must be performed by the Local Station Board, or by a separate Community Advisory Committee formed by the Local Station Board for that purpose.

- In conjunction with Station Management and Staff, ensuring that the radio station's programming fulfills the purposes of the mission of the Pacifica Foundation.
- Review and approve of the radio station's budget. Quarterly reports by the local station board must be forwarded to the Pacifica Foundation board of directors on the station's budget, actual income and expenditures.
- Screening and selecting a pool of candidates for the position of General Manager at each radio station. From this pool of candidates the Pacifica Foundation Executive Director will hire the station's General Manager.
- Screening and selecting a pool of candidates for the position of Program Director at each radio station. From this pool of candidates the General Manager will hire the station's Program Director.
- Writing annual evaluations on the job performances of the radio station's General Manager, Program Director and the Pacifica Foundation Executive Director.
- The Local Station Board and the Pacifica Foundation Executive Director are responsible for hiring each station's General Managers. Both the Pacifica Foundation Executive Director and Local Station Board must reach a mutual decision to terminate a General Manager. If these 2 parties cannot agree the decision will be made by the Foundation's Board of Directors.

Each individual member of the Local Station Board is expected to attend monthly meetings and to serve on at least two of the Local Station Board committees.

THE ELECTION METHOD OF THE KPFT STATION BOARD

According to the bylaws, this election will use the CHOICE VOTING form of proportional representation (also call “Single Transferable Vote” or simply “STV”). Proportional representation refers to voting systems in which groups of voters win representation in proportion to their numbers. For example, 10% of the voters will elect approximately 10% of the seats, 20% of voters will elect 20% of the seats and so forth. The majority wins a majority but not all of the seats, while minority viewpoints also win their fair share of the seats. The CHOICE VOTING form of proportional representation is a system in which voters rank candidates in order of choice. The method of tallying votes is designed to facilitate each voter having someone elected to the board that is acceptable to him/her. CHOICE VOTING tends to prevent monolithic “slates” of candidates from monopolizing a board. In this way, CHOICE VOTING promotes diversity and democracy. This is different from winner-take-all elections where the majority has the potential to elect every single seat on the board, leaving minority viewpoints un-represented.

HOW IT WORKS

If there are 25 candidates for nine positions, then every ballot will ask members to RANK the 25 candidates in order of preference, from 1 to 25.

Since there are nine spaces to be filled, it will take a little more than 10% of the vote for a candidate to reach the proportional threshold necessary to win election. This is because if nine candidates each got 10.01% of the vote, this would add up to 90.09% of the vote. It would then be impossible for a tenth candidate to have more votes than those top nine, since there is only 9.91% of the vote remaining.

In the first round of voting, the first place candidate on each ballot receives one vote. Any candidate that has achieved the threshold percentage is declared a winner.

At this point second place votes begin to count. First, candidates that had more votes than they needed (say, 13%), have portions of their vote redistributed to the second choice candidates of the individuals who placed them first on their ballots. Second, low vote-getting candidates, who are below the point where it would be possible for them to achieve the threshold, also have their votes distributed to the individuals who were ranked second on their ballots.

Through a series of rounds of redistributing votes this way, eventually a full Board of nine individuals achieves the threshold, and are declared elected.

Important advice for voters:

- There is no reason to vote strategically. Because your first choice vote counts entirely for your preference as long as s/he needs the vote to be elected, it never hurts your candidate to rank others below her/him.
- Rank as many candidates as you have opinions about. Because your ballot continues to shape the results for as long as it takes to fill a complete Board, it is always a good idea to rank many candidates. Ranking additional candidates ensures that your vote is maximized, and no part of your vote will be wasted.

- The best strategy for a voter is to rank every candidate in order, or as many candidates as you have an opinion about.

VOTE QUORUM REQUIRED

To make this election valid, the bylaws require at least 10% of the eligible voters to actually vote. The on-air staff will encourage listeners to run for office and to cast their ballots but must refrain from endorsing candidates on-air.
